

Europeana in your classroom:
building 21st-century competences
with digital cultural heritage (Rerun)

Massive Open Online Course
#EuropeanaMOOC

Study for the Francesco Sforza
equestrian monument, Leonardo da
Vinci
Royal Library, Windsor
Public Domain

Co-financed by the European Union
Connecting Europe Facility

Why?

The “Europeana in your classroom: building 21st-century competences with digital cultural heritage (Rerun)” MOOC will improve teacher’s understanding of cultural heritage in order to efficiently integrate this topic into their lessons and practices, regardless of the subject they usually teach.

Course information

Start date: Monday, 14th January 2019

Duration: 6.5 weeks

Number of modules: 5 (one module per week)

and 1.5 extra weeks at the end of the course in order for participants to submit their final course activity and review the activity of three of their peers.

Content

- Understand why it is important to use European cultural heritage in education.
- Learn how to use digital cultural records to teach their subjects.
- Learn how to navigate the Europeana Collections website.
- Explore and become familiarized with the various Europeana apps, tools and materials.
- Learn how to build learning activities using Europeana educational resources.

For whom?

Primary and secondary school teachers and teacher trainers from Europe and beyond.

Other stakeholders like museums, cultural centers, etc., can also follow the course.

Register for the course
here

Download the course description and dissemination package

Facebook group: ‘Europeana in your classroom: building 21st-century competences (Rerun)’ MOOC

www.europeana.eu

Co-financed by the European Union
Connecting Europe Facility