Europeana Aggregators' Forum meeting

15 - 16 OCTOBER 2020 | WEB CONFERENCE

General Information

Zoom

This event is being held online via Zoom.

You can use zoom through your browser, though for the best experience the application is advised.

15 October 2020 meeting ID: 998 9243 1994

16 October 2020 meeting ID: 987 7333 9907

Once you enter the room you will temporarily be placed in a waiting room to get access. This is an extra security measure.

During the event you will be transferred to break out rooms. If you happen to lose connection during these sessions: don't worry, you'll be redirected back to the right breakout room once you connect again.

Zoom will be available all through the meeting, both days, to offer the opportunity to talk to each other during the breaks.

Q&A document

Please add your questions before and during the meeting to this document.

Test your connection

We are available 15 minutes before the meeting starts to check your connection, device, headphones or microphone. Need assistance during the meeting? Contact the host through a private chat.

Etiquette

An online event has a different atmosphere than a live event. Please take the following into account:

- Mute your microphone before entering a session.
- Use your camera and please think about the following:
 - Face the light, don't sit with your back to a window.
 - Need to leave for a second? Turn your camera off.
- Check your username, use your first and last name.

Speakers

Marco Rendina

Managing Director
European Fashion Heritage Association

Marco Rendina is the Managing Director of the European Fashion Heritage Association since 2015. Marco has been working for two decades with museums, archives and libraries across Europe, supporting them in their digital transformation, advocating for open access, gaining extensive experience in Digital Libraries design and implementation and fostering innovation in the cultural heritage sector in Europe. He is member of the Board of Directors in various international cultural heritage organisations and networks, like the European Fashion Heritage Association, the Jewish Heritage Network and the EUscreen Foundation. In 2018 he was elected Chair of the Europeanana Aggregators Forum, and he has been appointed by the European Commission as member of the Digital Cultural Heritage and Europeanana (DCHE) expert group.

Sara Di Giorgio

Technical responsible of CulturalItalia
Central Institute for the Union Catalogue of Italian Libraries and Bibliographic Information

Sara is currently leading a team for the development of CulturalItalia, the Italian National aggregator, that collects digital resources from thematic national and regional portals and databases of public and private institutions belonging to the world of Italian culture. She is managing different aspects tackling organizational, technical, legal and communication aspects for updating CulturalItalia' and for supporting the participation of the Italian memory Institutions to the Europeanana's campaigns for opening up the digital collections and evaluating their impact on spreading knowledge and benefits to all citizens.

Speakers

Kerstin Herlt

EU Projects Coordinator
DFF - German Film Institute & Film Museum

Kerstin Herlt is project coordinator at DFF - Deutsches Filmmuseum & Filminstitut in Frankfurt/Main. She is mainly working on EU funded projects dealing with digitisation, access, digital curation and conservation of archival film. From 2015-2017 she was head of office of ACE (Association des Cinémathèques Européennes) and has coordinated ACE's work on projects such as the European Film Gateway, the orphan works project FORWARD, and several film literacy projects.

Kerstin Herlt holds a Master's Degree in Roman Philology, Sociology and European Media Studies.

Henning Scholz

Partner & Operations Manager
Europeana Foundation

Henning is responsible for the relationships with cultural heritage professionals. As a paleontology curator and BHL-Europe coordinator, Henning contributed digital objects to the portal even before joining Europeana in 2012. He loves race cycling (the longer the better) and triathlon, and coordinates the Europeana Running Team.

Speakers

Fred Truyen

Professor
KU Leuven

Prof. Dr. Frederik Truyen is professor at the Faculty of Arts, KU Leuven. He publishes on Digitization, Photography, and E-Learning. He is in charge of the mediaLab CS Digital. His research interests are mostly related to Digitization and Publishing of Cultural Heritage. He is involved in projects on Open Educational Resources and Open Learning (currently E-SLP), and on digitization of Cultural Heritage: IDEM, RICH, 3PI (Hercules funding), EuropeanaPhotography and Europeana Space (EC CIP), Europeana DSI (aggregator for photography) and Migration in the Arts and Sciences (EC CEF Generic services). He has experience in data modelling for Image databases in the cultural-historical field. President of PHOTOCONSORTIUM, the aggregator of Photography for Europeana, and member of DARIAH-VL.

Andy Neale

Technical Director
Europeana Foundation

Andy joined Europeana from New Zealand after co-founding the DigitalNZ Service in 2008 and then spending five years on the National Library executive. He has a background in data science, software development, and marketing but he most enjoys working with people, design, and technology to create great experiences for the world. In his role as Technical Director he hopes to create a space where we are both happy with what we do today, as well as hungry for what we might still achieve for tomorrow.
