

Boost your digital collection

Europeana national workshop in collaboration with Digisam (and the National Library of Sweden)

National Library, Stockholm, Sweden

16 October 2019

Henrik Summanen	Digisam´s unit at the Swedish National Heritage Board
Andy Neale	Europeana Foundation
Henning Scholz	Europeana Foundation
Eleftheria Tsoupra	Europeana Foundation
Cosmina Berta	German Digital Library
Haris Georgiadis	National Documentation Centre Athens
Minna Kaukonen	National Library of Finland
Stefan Papp	Archives Portal Europe Foundation

Advance reference material

- Europeana Publishing Framework
- Europeana Publishing Guide
- Europeana Licensing Framework
- Europeana Network Association

Time	Agenda item
09.00 - 09.30	Arrival – Registration – Coffee
09.30 - 09.45	Introduction
	Welcoming address and introduction to the workshop by Carl-Magnus Fahlcrantz (DIGISAM), Lars Ilshammar (National Library of Sweden) and Andy Neale (Europeana Foundation).
09.45 - 10.20	Topic 1: Everything you need to know about Europeana (moderated by Henrik Summanen)
	Presentation: Europeana strategy and value of contributing to Europeana. Who: Andy Neale, Henning Scholz What will be covered: What is Europeana and what is it not, what is the strategy, positioning of Europeana and examples of international collaboration, value of working with Europeana and contributing to the Europeana platform, product portfolio and opportunities for disseminating digital cultural heritage Q&As
10.20 - 10.40	Case Study 1
	Presentation: Case Study: The National Library of Finland and Europeana Who: Minna Kaukonen, National Library of Finland Q&A
10.40 - 11.00	Case Study 2
	Presentation: Connecting archives to Europeana Who: Stefan Papp, Archives Portal Europe Foundation Q&A
11.00 - 11.15	Coffee Break
11.15 - 12.15	Topic 2: Cross-domain interoperability (moderated by Henning Scholz)
	Presentation: Cross-domain aggregation in Germany: the experience of the German Digital Library Who: Cosmina Berta, German Digital Library
	Presentation: Mechanisms towards cross-domain interoperability in the Greek National Aggregator Who: Haris Georgiadis, National Documentation Centre Athens (searchculture.gr)

	Panel discussion: Achieving cross-domain interoperability in Sweden (And in what way can Europeana help us with this?) Who: Cosmina Berta, Haris Georgiadis, David Haskiya
12.15 - 13.00	Lunch
13.00 - 13.30	Topic 3: The publishing framework - the more you give, the more you get (moderated by Andy Neale)
	Presentation: How the Europeana Publishing Framework can help you achieve more with your data: The More You Give, The More You Get. Who: Henning Scholz Q&A
13.30 - 14.45	Parallel sessions 75 minutes
	Interactive session with participants in three groups. Tables: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Aggregation in Sweden, SOCH/K-samsök. Mia Carlsson, Larissa Borck, Marcus Smith, Albin Larsson (location: Rydbergrummet) 2. Information quality and multilingualism in Europeana (data quality requirements, Europeana Publishing Framework in practice): Eleftheria Tsoupra, Cosmina Berta, Haris Georgiadis (location: Thorvallrummet) 3. Copyright and the Europeana Licensing Framework (what it is and how it adds value by getting your data to users under the right terms): Henning Scholz (location: Willersrummet) Set up of parallel sessions: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● 10-20 min introductory presentation on the topic ● 50-60 min interactive discussion ● 5 min wrap up
14.45 - 15.15	Closing discussion (Henning Scholz & Henrik Summanen)
	Whole group discussion: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Report back from parallel sessions ● Answer key questions of the day
15.15-15.30	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Final Q&As ● Outline evaluation process and follow-up ● Wrap up and goodbyes