Sustainability Report III -
First Dissemination Report and Preliminary Exploitation Plan

Deliverable number 6.9
Dissemination level Public
Delivery date 27 August, 2010
Status Final
Author(s) Susanna Schulz (SPK), Norman Rodger (UEDIN)

eContentplus

This project is funded under the eContentplus programme\(^1\), a multiannual Community programme to make digital content in Europe more accessible, usable and exploitable.

Sustainability Report III

Preliminary exploitation plan

At the Project Steering Group (PSG) Meeting on 24th June 2010, held in Berlin, the consortium agreed to adopt a subscription model, as discussed at the previous meeting in March and as reported in the previous Sustainability Report. Nine of the current MIMO partners (those currently providing digital content) have therefore committed to keep the MIMO content harvestable by Europeana, for a minimum period of 5 years beyond the life of the project.

The first draft version of this agreement is attached to this report. This draft will be further developed at a sub group meeting of WP6, to be held at SPK in Berlin, on 9th September, 2010. The aim of that meeting is to complete a more detailed second version which will then be reviewed by legal specialists at UEDIN, before ratification and formal adoption by the PSG Meeting in Stockholm in October, 2010.

This agreement forms a base on which the consortium can now explore other sustainability models, such as sponsorship, involvement with CIMCIM and the addition of new partners etc. over Year 2 of the project.

5 Commitment of subscribers

- All partners commit to maintaining the databases and systems established during the life of the MIMO project to facilitate ongoing harvesting by the MIMO server at Cité de la Musique and, in turn, from there by Europeana.

- All partners commit to adding details of new acquisitions to their own databases and to notify CM and UEDIN of such additions, in order to increase online resources and inform the public of new content.

- There must be an official contact person in order to be available to the public.

- Each partner institution shall commit an agreed amount of staff resources to the maintenance of their internal database.

- Each partner institution shall participate in all meetings. (The meeting schedule is to be agreed at the WP6 Sub Group Meeting, 9 September 2010) Attendance at these meetings is mandatory. Additional meetings may be called as necessary and representation is expected as required.

6 Commitment of subscription holders
Technical realisation

For the period covered by this agreement, content will be harvested using the technical infrastructure created during the MIMO project, namely the MIMO server and MIMO-database at Cité de la Musique.

The MIMO database and server will continue to be managed by CM, while the website will be the responsibility of UEDIN.

Over the five year period of this agreement, specific responsibilities will be broken down as follows:

CM

- Will provide and maintain the MIMO server.
- Will provide the technical means and resources to harvest data and make it available online.
- Will provide the technical means to enable ongoing harvesting of partner databases to facilitate the automatic addition of new content.

UEDIN

- Will take over responsibility for the management of the MIMO website will from SPK at the end of the MIMO project. The new site will be hosted and maintained by UEDIN, both in terms of content and technical maintenance.
- Will, via the website, publicise the addition of new content to the MIMO database. This will be done on a bi-annual basis or as required, if a significant new item or collection is added.
- Ensure that there will be an official contact person available to respond to public enquiries.

7 Internal Communication

- As with the MIMO project, email shall continue to be the principal means of communication during the period of this contract.

- In addition to the scheduled meetings listed above (section 4), Skype (or a future equivalent) shall be used for additional meetings, where contact is required between programmed events.

8. Termination

Given the duration of the agreement, no right to voluntarily withdraw shall be provided for in this agreement. However if, for any reason beyond the reasonable control of any party, such party reasonably considers that it is, or will be unable to fulfil its obligations, such party shall in the first instance provide written notice of such circumstances to the Steering Group, which shall seek, whether to agree on remedial action where reasonably possible, in order that the continuance of the service shall not be prejudiced, or to agree how the service may be adjusted to continue in such changed circumstances. All parties shall be expected to act in good faith in such respect.

In addition, should either CM and UEDIN be forced to withdraw from the partnership at any point within the five years covered by this agreement, an emergency meeting must be called before any withdrawal takes place, in order to put alternative provision in place.
Sustainability Report III

First dissemination report

The following report presents a summary of all deliverables concerning WP6 and an analysis of their effects on the MIMO target groups. In some points the report is held rather short, as WP6 reporting in relation to PSG meetings was very comprehensive. The report is separated into two sections: Section One concerns dissemination via the internet, Section Two concerns dissemination events.

Section 1 - dissemination via the internet

D6.1 - MIMO public website

The public website has been online since the start of the project in September 2009. The first version of the site underwent a major overhaul in January 2010, following a review into its content and functionality by the Project Management team in at UEDIN in December 2009.

The site, which has been developed using the Drupal Content Management System, offers a wide range of opportunities for interaction, social networking and communication via user profiles, which can be created by user registration to the website.

The MIMO newsletter is sent automatically in a language selected by the user. Social networking is possible with web tools like YouTube, Facebook, Twitter and Flickr. Communication is possible in various ways such as joining the recently opened public forum or via direct contact with users. The “About”-menu has been recently revised and re-edited to read less formally, in response to user feedback.

D6.1 - MIMO internal website

This was an internal site was launched shortly after the public website, in the first month of the project, as a means of internal communication and providing an access point for key project files and documents. As with the public site, the internal website has undergone one major overhaul as well as ongoing improvements since the review by UEDIN in December 2009. To ensure that this work does not significantly disrupt access to documents, a mirror site has been set up at – www.mimo-internal.eu

D6.3 – Flyers

The first version of the flyer was produced in time for the Kick-off meeting in Florence, in September 2009. A print run of 10,000 flyers was divided amongst the MIMO partners for public distribution.

A second, slightly revised version of this leaflet was printed in time for the PSG meeting in Berlin, in June 2010. Again, a run of 10,000 was printed and divided amongst the project partners.

Newsletters

D6.4 - Newsletter No. 1

The English edition was released on 30th of November 2009. The newsletter No.1 distribution fully relied on techniques of classical acquisition, as web technology was still under construction at this early stage of the project. The distribution of the MIMO newsletter No.1 has been prepared by asking the consortium for addresses of various target groups. Thus 420 addresses could be collected and directly be written to, out of which approximately 40 persons responded immediately by ordering the newsletter via email.

Survey on Membership accession

The following survey shows the weekly registrations in quantity since 2010 and the weekly first registered user, thus presenting a cross section on a random basis. The registration entries may be referring to any dissemination event. The first significant registration was in beginning of February 2010. This survey documents the steadiness of online registration.

a) 2009

48 weeks and more: 7 users (all MIMO associates). These user profiles are maintained specially for website maintenance and language editing. All profiles registered in 2009.

b) 2010

28 weeks ago: 10 users (first registration in Netherlands, school teacher)
27 weeks ago: 5 users (first registration in Germany, teacher of higher education)

Web 2.0 technologies applied

Voicethread: no recent activity
Twitter: no recent activity (for 3 months)
Flickr: 10-20 visits per week at present.
Facebook: “MO. MUSICAL INSTRUMENT MUSEUMS ONLINE.” One person has marked the site as his favourite one. There are 316 followers. One video uploaded.

- Youtube account “bellapintura”: 1 video on MIMO by Norman Rodger, 62 visits
- Youtube account “MIMOfuject”: 2 videos.
- Video2: “EUCHMI_PHOTOGRAPHY” – speaker Arnold Myers - 155 visits

Using Flickr is a bit problematic, as copyright have to be accepted (concerning publishing photographs of musical instruments). The consortium observed that some of the web2.0 are very well eligible to promote new MIMO videos or any other activities.

Summary

Analysis of various statistics has shown that mainly musicians and researchers, but also instrument makers and teachers have interest in receiving the MIMO newsletter. These for target groups already cover a relatively wide range of different economic branches and hence a good cross section through society.

GNM - Musica Antiqua concert series

Since 1956, the Germanisches Nationalmuseum offers the concert series “Musica Antiqua”, together with the Bavarian radio. In altogether five concerts a year, national and international guest musicians demonstrate historically informed performance practice of various epochs of music on instruments, which partly come from the collection of historic musical instruments of the Germanisches Nationalmuseum.

Before and subsequent to the “Musica Antiqua” concerts, the audience is offered the chance to get informed about the MIMO-project. Therefore, leaflets and information material is put on display.
